

We'd like your thoughts about our Solid Waste Facilities

Jefferson County's current solid waste facility faces serious challenges:

- The capacity of the existing facility to handle increased amounts of materials and more facility users has been exceeded, causing longer wait times.
- Aging buildings and equipment are becoming more expensive to maintain.
- Population growth is projected to continue to increase, leading to more waste and recyclables to manage.

Scan code

for survey

Share your thoughts on how to rebuild or replace our county's Solid Waste & Recycling facility near Port Townsend

Take our survey:

jeffersoncountysolidwaste.com/solid-waste-facility-replacement-project

www.co.jefferson.wa.us

1820 Jefferson Street
Port Townsend, WA

Jefferson County is an Equal Opportunity Provider and Employer

A Solid Waste Facilities Task Force was convened to identify the best options for addressing facility and community needs.

54%

Amount current facilities are OVER daily tonnage capacity for daily use.

Community members, county staff, and industry experts from VIKEK Environmental Engineers, LLC currently meet to develop recommendations for the county Board of Commissioners. Recommendations will be submitted to the Board in early-2024.

As we consider options and costs, the county and Task Force want to consider YOUR ideas and thoughts. For important project planning updates and to learn more, please visit our website.

We are committed to developing recommendations that reflect the community's needs and desires and ensure the county continues to provide efficient, equitable, and economical solid waste and recycling services.

Solid Waste Facilities Task Force meeting dates and times are available on our website and a hybrid option is available.

jeffersoncountyfacilityreplacement.com